

Forum NCHD Webinar Series Autumn 2025

9/9/25

@ 6pm

Financial Preparedness

Mortgages, payslips, overtime, pensions, general finance hints and tips.

Francis McGrath
IMO Financial Services

register here on zoom now>>>>

1/10/25

@ 5pm

Medical Parents

A webinar for anyone who has or is thinking of having a child while working in medicine.

Topics include: Breastfeeding, Sleep, Childcare Options, Finances, Tax implications/ take home pay for half time work, Balancing Projects and Research.

register here on zoom now>>>>

16/9/25 @ 6pm

CV tips and interview skills

Essential advice for honing your CV and doing a good medical job interview. Aimed at those applying for Basic and Higher specialist training programmes.

Jack O'Flanagan
Manager - Forum of Irish Postgraduate Medical Training Bodies

register here on zoom now>>>>

14/10/25 @ 6pm

Working with Neurodivergence

A webinar to discuss how to manage neurodivergence in your patients as well as yourself.

Dr Katie Browne
Clinical Psychologist

register here on zoom now>>>>

This series features a diverse range of topics aimed at enhancing your skills and knowledge in the healthcare field. Lead by insightful discussions with industry leaders

~~~~~
Key topics that cover the latest advancements and best practices in training and personal development

25/9/25

@ 6pm

Diagnose, Discover, Deliver: A Roadmap to Research

- How to get involved in research from an early career perspective
- Steps on how to start the process
- Resources available

Prof Seán Hynes
Professor in Pathology, University of Galway, Consultant Histopathologist, University Hospital Galway

register here on zoom now>>>>

Visit TheForum.ie to access our previous webinar recordings